

About El Camino Reelers

The members of El Camino Reelers (ECR) are excited to be celebrating a quarter century of square dancing in the South Bay / Silicon Valley area.

Our club was founded in 1985 by Marilyn Martinyak and Pat Dixon as an alternative to the gay square dance clubs an hour's drive away in San Francisco.

We meet weekly at St. Andrews United Methodist Church, 4111 Alma Street in Palo Alto. Rich Reel is our current club caller, a position formerly held by Andy Shore and Harlan Kerr.

ECR is a member of IAGSDC (International Association of Gay and Lesbian Square Dance Clubs) and SCVSDA (Santa Clara Valley Square Dancers Association), our local (straight) square dance organization, and we welcome both gay and straight dancers at our events.

Our logo combines eight squares in the Gay Pride rainbow colors with the distinctive bell symbol of El Camino Real, the California Mission Trail which stretches from San Diego to Sonoma, passing through the cities of the South Bay.

In 2005, ECR hosted over 1000 dancers for the 22nd annual IAGSDC Convention, "Star Thru the Silicon Galaxy".

This April, we hope you will join us at the San Jose Holiday Inn to mark 25 years of high energy square dancing:
